As far as we know - we solved below issues completely - but if some of them still persist - please let us know.

Critical fixes. Version 1.0.004:

The version 1.0.004 has arrived. New changes coming soon...:

Hi!, changes are coming, in the gameplay of Project Nightmares.

The first one in version 1.0.004 will deal with the elements that we use to illuminate our path. In this case, the candle.

As everyone knows, the candles melt...

and they turn off on fast movements...

Even they can burn us, and a single candle it's not sufficient to illuminate our path for a long time. These changes will coming soon.

It is a complex behaviour, that is why we did not uploaded new information for days.

We will fix a bug we found on a japanese youtuber too.

As you know, we continue with the expansion of the game, but this will be seen in the end.
